

WILSON & ROE

LEADING THE HIGH COURT ENFORCEMENT INDUSTRY

Wilson & Roe are one of the longest established High Court Enforcement Offices in England and Wales. We have experienced significant growth since our inception over 20 years ago, but remain a company that is owned by its operational directors, who firmly believe continuity is key. We are proud to uphold the same values and commitment to our clients that have been at the heart of our business since the beginning.

A winning team

Strong leadership is at the core of every successful business. We are excited to announce we are strengthening our senior leadership team with the appointment of Eric Roe as Managing Director.

Introducing: Andrew Wilson, Sarah Roscoe and Eric Roe.

Andrew (FCICM) is our co-founder, solicitor and High Court Enforcement Officer, and has been with us since inception.

Sarah Roscoe, brought on board by co-founder Andrew Roe almost 15 years ago takes a step up from Managing Director to Chair.

Eric Roe (MCICM), solicitor and High Court Enforcement Officer, who first joined the family business at the age of 15, has been appointed Managing Director.

Ready for the future

Sarah Roscoe commented "Exciting times are ahead at Wilson & Roe as Eric steps up. Together we are committed to maintaining our leading position in the High Court Enforcement industry and we will continue to work hard to deliver outstanding service and achieve market leading results for all our clients".

eric.roe@wilsonandroe.com

0161 925 1800

Wilson & Roe, 26 Missouri Avenue, Salford, Manchester M50 2NP